

PUBLIC GENERAL LAW.

2635

Page.

or writ of error sued out, was merely for delay, to award damages at the rate of four per cent. per annum, above the ordinary interest—1832, ch. 230, . . . . .	1083
In cases of judgments in the county courts, at the second term, stay of execution, under supersedeas, to be computed from the first Thursday of the term next ensuing such second term—1834, ch. 126, sec. 2, . . . . .	1138
In cases of judgments in the courts of this state, instead of any other execution, the plaintiff may take out an attachment against the lands, goods, &c. of defendant, whether in his own or in the hands of others, or whether he reside in the county where the judgment was rendered, or elsewhere—1834, ch. 189, . . . . .	1141
Judgment by default to be entered against any corporate body which does not appear by the second day of the term succeeding the term to which the process is returned—1834, ch. 89, sec. 3, . . . . .	1134
Appeal to lie from all judgments in the magistrates' courts to the next or second term of the county court, &c.—1835, ch. 201, sec. 3, . . . . .	1199
See Magistrates' Courts.
Rendered by the magistrates' courts not to be considered liens on lands, tenements or hereditaments—1803, ch. 380, sec. 2, . . . . .	1296
No attorney, or other person, shall confess judgment in court, or before one or more magistrates, for any sum of money or tobacco, &c. by virtue of any power of attorney, either separate or contained in any judgment bond, nor shall any court give judgment on any such bond by virtue of such power—1747, ch. 23, sec. 2, . . . . .	85

JURISDICTION.

See Columbia.

Over the lands on North Point and Bodkin Island, at the mouth of the river Patapsco, ceded to the United States—1820, ch. 33, . . . . .	725
The commissioners of the town of Havre-de-Grace authorized to sell to the United States a site for a light-house, upon certain streets in that town—1826, ch. 201, . . . . .	888
The right of jurisdiction of this state to be relinquished, ceded to the United States—1826, ch. 201, . . . . .	888
The like over the ground heretofore contracted for, as sites for a light-house on Cove Point, in Calvert county—1826, ch. 201, . . . . .	888
Provisions for ceding territorial jurisdiction over sites for certain, to the United States, and ascertaining the value of such sites—1827, ch. 136, . . . . .	934
The right of jurisdiction of the state over the lands on Hooper's or Barren Island, and Sharp's Island ceded to the United States for the erection of—1831, ch. 6, . . . . .	1009
Also at Turkey Point—1831, ch. 150, . . . . .	1020
Jurisdiction over Love Point, in Queen Anne's county, ceded to the United States for a light-house—1833, ch. 64, . . . . .	1111
Same over Piney Point, in St. Mary's county—1833, ch. 265, . . . . .	1128
Same on Point Concord—1826, ch. 201, p. 888; 1827, ch. 136, . . . . .	934
See Small Debts—Magistrates' Courts—Chancery.	